“ Anna was one of the sweetest Christian women I have ever known. I have always loved her as my sister in the Lord and my sister-in-law. Now she is happier than any of us can imagine with our Lord and others who have gone on before. Say hello to Billy for me. Looking forward to that great reunion one day. May God comfort and lift up those who remain. Clara Rutter

Sister Anna Mae Hill was my spiritual sister and mother, as well as my friend and aunt. As sisters, we shared a perfect love for God, our heavenly Father and Friend. That perfect love cast out all fear of condemnation because we had been forgiven and bought with a price: the shed blood of Jesus, God's only begotten Son. That "certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation" was replaced by a deep abiding peace that no power could mine away, and an abiding love for our Savior, engendered by "God, who is rich in mercy" and "for His great love wherewith He loved us, even when we were dead in [trespasses and] sins, [had] quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved) and [had] raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come He might [show] the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Jesus Christ. For by grace are [we] saved through faith; and that not of [ourselves]: it is the gift of God." When we loved Him back and met the conditions, He adopted us and made us His own dear children. As a spiritual mother, Sister Anna loved me unconditionally and taught me and many others by the example of her meek and quiet spirit (which in the sight of God is of great price) and her chaste conduct. As Sister, Mother, friend, and aunt, Sister Anna prayerfully and lovingly reached out to me all along my journey -- as saved then backslidden then recovered --, and nourished and restored me by loving me, and faithfully writing to me and sending me tapes and spiritual literature. I miss her sorely but know I shall see her again someday in our heavenly home where we shall sing God's praises around His throne. And for as long as I have breath in this body, I shall cherish her memory close to my heart.
