“ I cared for Beverly in her final days. I was sitting with her, holding her hand as I stroked her hair and sang to her.

Some of the nursing staff used to bring her a chocolate shake or ice cream because it was the best way to get her to eat. She enjoyed her shake or ice cream while sitting in the recliner watching television. I would often sit with her from time to time when she was upset.

Beverly was a special resident and she will be dearly missed.
