“ Please accept my condolences at the death of my dear friend, Jo Ann Williams. We have been friends since the 1940's when I just a little boy. We shared many memories throughout the years together, because she lived right down the street from me on West Main Street in Zanesville, Ohio. I knew her and her family, and spent many times at her house on South State Street in Zanesville, We practically grew up together because regardless whereas our paths took different turns, we always kept in touch. I remembered one time when we attended the same party together in February 1966 and was having such a good time that we did not realized that we had stayed all night at the party. I shall certainly miss her!
