“ I did not have the privilege to meet Brenda until about 15 years ago. . . doing genealogy. Sometimes there are surprises that rise to meet you. I am sorry to hear that Brenda is gone. I hope that all else is ok. I met and spent quite a few blissfull hours with Brenda's mother Doretta and we shared photos and family stories. Please share my sympathies with her brother and her children. . . . We hope and pray that the Creator will send comfort to you all.

“ Sorry for your loss. Brenda was always so kind to me growing up, she would bring her children down to Goddard park and I would push them on the baby swing. In later years Brenda and Bill bought our house I grew up in. My thoughts and prayers are with you all!
