“ So so sad. Brian was such a wonderful father and grandfather. He loved his children so very much and he was so proud of them all. His face just lit up whenever he talked about them. And I was lucky to be part of this wonderful family. We were cousins and we grew up together at Grandma Ida's house. With parents that worked, all the kids were dropped off at her house, so we were all more like siblings than cousins. And this funny, crazy cousin will surely be missed. Love to all his children and grandchildren, and that first great grandson.

“ Our condolences to Brian's family and friends during this difficult time of grieving. We didn't know Brian in a personal way, but we witnessed a quiet, respectful, good-natured man, and the poorer we were for not knowing him better....Alan, Linda Mayle
