“ Lot of people thought Uncl Carl was a little of his rocker. But to me he was funny easy going and loved his family and his God. He made me laugh over and over. He was a hugger and always had a kind word to say. I will remember him as a funny man who I admired and loved. Now he's at peace. Rest easy old man and hope to see you someday above the clouds. Your nephew Howard. 😭😭😭

I can imagine Brother Carl now that he finally reached his eternal home. Shouting louder than ever.... My dear brother, I have a lot of good memories with you. You were always my friend and I will look forward to hearing that shout you use to give and seeing you dancing in heaven.... even more than what you use to do. We can spend more time in heaven together. Distance or time won't be an issue there. God bless the Conant Family. I hope to be at the funeral God willing. Mable, please keep your chin up. It won't be long and we will all be together with Carl again. God bless!
