“ Not sure if you will still get this but wanted to try. I was going through a box of things from my mother and there was a Farmhouse Ramblings article written by Charlene that my mother had clipped out and written "Joan, Read about Oak Bend Dairy". That was my grandparent's dairy where my mom and her sisters were raised. The article was talking about "older than dirt" type memories and she wrote:

" One of the things listed that I really identified with is the home delivery milk in glass bottles with the cardboard stoppers on the top. I am the proud owner of an Oak Bend Dairy bottle from Beloit Kansas. I found it in an antique store and couldn't resist. We got milk from them when I was a kid."

No idea when she wrote it (the clipping doesn't have the date) but wanted you to know that even now Charlene is bringing smiles and touching hearts.

“ I was in awe today with the beautiful celebration that was this amazing woman's life. The outpouring of love and support from her family and friends was beautiful to witness.

Char was family to be, not by blood but by a special bond. I greatly admired her for so many things and was truly a better person because of knowing and working with her.

“ Im sorry to the entire family for your loss! Charlene was a great friend. I was a contractor at CFAA and met her in 1997 and our friendship grew from there! She was the most genuine, caring and positive person I have ever met. She always had a smile on her face when I would stop by her desk, and I couldn't miss stopping by to see her! She was such a lovely lady and the world was definitely a better place with her in it! Im fortunate to have known her and called her my friend!
