He was born Sunday, December 5, 1948, in Columbus, the son of Harrison E. "Jim" Booth and Lucille (Hughes) Booth. He married Gretchen (Quinn) Booth on Saturday, September 5, 1992, and was a member of St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church.

Jeff served his country as a veteran of the United States Army, and was a Nuclear Medicine Technologist with Bethesda Hospital for many years. Following his career in the medical field, Jeff became a Real Estate Broker and operated his own brokerage company, Great Eastern Real Estate. Jeff was a firearm enthusiast, true to his life-long fascination with old western TV shows. He was often be seen about town a very dapper black cowboy hat.

He was an animal lover especially his dogs and cats. Most of all, Jeff had a great sense of humor and was a huge practical joker. He, along with this cousin Gene, were legendary in their family for the jokes, pranks and antics initiated and are still being reminisced to this day. One of his favorite pranks was listing in the wedding announcement that he and Gretchen would be embarking on a world cruise for their honeymoon, true to his word; he and Gretchen visited all the countries in the AmericaFlora Exhibit, the International Floral and Garden Exposition in 1992, featuring over 25 countries.

In addition to his mother: Lucille Booth, Jeff is survived by his wife: Gretchen Booth; four children: Michael (Dawn) Booth of Bradford Woods, PA, Charlette (James) Glines, Charlene (Rick) Richardson & Collette (Marty) Bickford all of Washington State: several grandchildren including: Anthony, Rachel & Joey Booth; one sister: Pam (Bruce) Shrimplin of Warsaw, OH and his mother-in-law: Margaret Quinn of Zanesville.

In addition to his father, Jeff was preceded in death by his father-in-law: Tom Quinn
