

Charles L. Martin

December 11, 1942 - December 8, 2019

Charles L. Martin, 76 of Dresden, formerly of Wooster, died 11:17 PM, Sunday, December 8, 2019, at Select Specialty Hospital in Newark. He was born December 11, 1942, in Wooster, the son of Herbert G. Martin and Catherine A. (Daugherty) Martin. He married Viola G. (Zimmerman) Martin on November 23, 1965, and was a former member of The Wooster Baptist Temple.

Charles was employed by American Augers and retired from Botnich Realty. He enjoyed doing yard work and the high light of each year was serving on the Wayne County Fair Staff, which he did for over twenty years. Charles was a loving and caring husband, father and grandfather who enjoyed spending time with his family and loved to attend family reunions.

In addition to his wife: Viola, Charles is survived by one son: Charles Lee (Cindy) Martin of Wadsworth; two daughters: Mary (Stephen) Wilson of Branchport, NY and Anna (Jonathan) Clark of Jacksonville, NC; six grandchildren; five great grandchildren; his beloved dog: Oliver; four brothers: Roger (Pam) Martin of Wooster, Howard (Judy) Martin of Apple Creek, Arthur (Diana) Martin of Cabot, Arkansas and Jeff Martin of Canal Fulton; five sisters: Helen Marton, Jan (Kenneth) Miller, Judy (Bob) Delaney all of Wooster, Kathi (Bill) Ice of Apple Creek and Sandy (David) Leighty of Big Prairie.

In addition to his parents, Charles was preceded in death by siblings: Patsy, Janet, Nancy, Carol Ann, Joel and David.

In accordance with Charles' wishes there will be no services. The family will gather at a later date to celebrate Charles' life and scatter his cremains in his beloved Wayne County. To sign the online guestbook or leave a personal note of condolence please visit www.hilliscombsnestor.com

“ What a wonderful man I am blessed to have met. I will miss saying "What up?" When I see him, he always seemed amused by that greeting. Love and prayers for his beautiful wife, Vi, and his lovely daughter, my friend, Mary, and for all family. Praising God for Chuck's faith and the promise of Heaven.
