“ Once my sister, always my sister...I can't hug you anymore, send you cards or write you letters. We can't talk on the phone for hours and I will miss you all the days of the life I have left but your spirit, your love and your soul lives on and I feel that Cheryl. You saw me at my worst and still thought I was the best. I raise my glass to you and picture you in a boat on the river with tangerine trees and marmalade skies...you're the love there that's sleeping.
