“ I recall like yesterday when we talked about the fact you would be unavailable for the classes at the YMCA while taking care of your husband. I know your decision was based in love and you have fulfilled that love by doing so and I am sure you made the right decision. I hope to greet you with a warm hug if and when you feel ready to come back to the Y. Dallas was a lucky man to have such a loving wife, but I imagine he was a special man for you to have loved him, too.

“ Judy our prayers for in the loss your husband Dallas. He worked with my father in law at Zanesville Mould for many years. Dallas gave my father in law a man's specially designed walking cane which was given to me when my father in law passed. It is a conversation piece. I will always remember Dallas for his wood working talent. Shirley and I will have you and family in our thoughts and prayers in this time of Dallas's passing.
