“ Bobby, Vicky, Kathy and family, it seems like yesterday we were kids playing, walking to school, and living a happy existence in our close knit neighborhood!!! The 8th Ward was nurturing and a wonderful place to grow up, where everyone knew your name! Those memories are forever etched in my mind and fill my heart with joy!!! Losing a sibling is by far one of the greatest losses you can ever experience. I know the Wade David and Debbie, along with your Mom and Dad and so many other loved ones welcomed David home!!! You are in my thoughts and prayers!!!

I met Dave at Rosevelt junior high and graduated with him in 1976. He was quiet, but a great person. Lost touch after high school. Sounds like his life was well lived and he made a difference. Blessings to family.
