“ Sean, soon after we met in Miss Millers 3rd grade class and started hanging out, your mother asked if I wanted to join the George Hann's mensware bowling team with C.B and Andy and Jeff G. A couple seasons later Andy and Jeff left & your Uncle John & T.J joined. It was your mothers encouragement and insight that introduced me to the lifetime activity of bowling. (Not to mention a few years of Zanesville City doubles Championships!!). She was a sweet woman and mother.

Denise and I were 2 of many Girl Scouts who spent many days hiking, swimming and many other things at Camp Tilting Acres and many years later She taught my children at Adamsville, I'm sure you all share a lot of good memories that will comfort you, I always remember that beautiful smile and the pretty "strawwberry blonde" hair.
