

Doris J. Emmert

March 9, 1931 - April 27, 2019

Doris Jean Emmert, 88 of Zanesville, died 1:00 AM, Saturday, April 27, 2019, at Paramount Senior Living in Westerville. She was born Monday, March 9, 1931 in Zanesville, the daughter of Herman Joseph Sigrist and Anna Josephine (Mehling) Sigrist. She married Edward "Ed" Francis Emmert on Saturday, November 28, 1953, and was a lifelong member of St. Nicholas Catholic Church.

Doris was a loving wife and mother, a voracious reader, and an avid gardener. She spent many years doting over her family, raising four energetic and sometimes challenging children, Mark, Steven, Karen and Janet. Doris was devoted to her husband and children, and cherished her role as mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, looking forward to each and every visit with her growing family. As her children grew and the demands of motherhood waned, Doris spent many hours reading and caring for the flowers and herbs in her large and varied garden. She took great pride in her family, home and garden.

Doris is survived by three children: Steven (Margie) Emmert of Chantilly, VA, Karen (Lawrence) Power of Columbus and Janet Campbell of Columbus; nine grandchildren: Meredith (Thomas) Lopez, Denys Emmert, Kyle (Shengjun) Emmert, Alyssa Emmert, Christopher Power, Mark Power, Meghan (John) Hagelstein, Ian (Kristen) Campbell and Caitlin (Garrett) Kelly; daughter-in-law: Mary Jane Neiman; five great grandchildren; four siblings: Mary Bradley, Lucille Gribben, Judith Bauerbaugh and Vincent (Rita) Sigrist; brothers and sisters-in-law: Sue Emmert, John (Ingrid) Emmert, Gerald (Judy) Emmert, Bernard Emmert, David (Jeanne) Emmert, Lawrence (Linda) Emmert and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Doris was preceded in death by her husband: Ed Emmert; one son: Mark Edward Emmert; one son-in-law: Craig Campbell; two brothers: H. Kenneth Sigrist and Thomas Sigrist and one brother-in-law: Thomas Emmert.

“ Doris was my first "crush" (I was 6). I remember when she and Ed gave my parents their first grandchild. Her four children were my first episodes in baby sitting, Mark when I was just 11. Our lives crossed for nearly 70 years and I can say without pause that she was one classy lady. Ed was a lucky man, I hope that she and my brother Ed are now together and content. She will be forever missed.

We love you Doris !
