“ Marcia & Family, I am so sorry of this late response of personal sympathies for your mother's passing. She was a fantastic lady who always welcomed me into the home and extended the utmost respect with demonstrated strong character and family values. I sincerely pray that this time of grieving has only solidified the memories of a loving mother who deeply cared for her family.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Gildow family. Remember how lucky you were to have her for as long as you have and all the happy memories. Nan always had a smile on her face. I still look for the red or green dot when I pass her house, and think of her when i hear the word pajama pants. Dave Beth Korri & Cassie Kessler

“ To Ron & Mary Beth, John, Mark & Marcia, and to all of your children and extended family, we send our heartfelt condolences for the loss of your Mother, Grandmother, and Great Grandmother. I never called her “Dot” as to this day I always felt she deserved my utmost respect but she nonetheless would always correct me! I will forever recall her stoic resolve after losing her first born son way too early; if there was a “Mom’s Hall of Fame” Mrs. G would surely have been inducted long ago. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you in remembrance for a truly special lady. Steve & Patty Durant
