“ Thank God in heaven my dear sweet mother has broken the chains that bound her to lay on her back for years. I witnessed a pure soul transform from suffering to being set free from this life in her last hour and honestly it was glorious. For me to know I'll never have to drive 5 hours down and back to see mom laying in a bed lifeless is all I needed to rejoice in the name of our faithful father. This morning I woke to a sunrise that was so welcoming mom and I sat together watching it rise over the horizon drinking our coffee talking at the table laughing over all the silly stories we will share for eternity. Rest in piece my best friend, I shall see you soon. All my love heart and soul always and forever. Your baby girl !
