“ Sue and Eddie, this is your old neighbor, Sharon. Am snowbound this week and started thinking about my PAST, old friends, etc. So, when I googled your names, I found this sad notice of Eddie's death. Those children on Creedmoor felt like my own, including him and Tena, too. I love the picture you have posted; he was such a handsome man, and still looked the same through his eyes. It was Tena's eyes I remembered, laughter, too. God bless you all wherever you are. I live in Kentucky but have driven Creedmoor several times, even stopped once and visited with Mrs. Bontrager at 2115. I always looked at your house and never saw anybody, or anybody I recognized. Sorry about the loss of Barb Vetula and Suzie Uppole. All were good neighbors. Again, my condolences. Sharon Allen Firebaugh (February 1, 2021)
