“ Floyd was a kind-caring-fun neighbor. He would always have a great smile and a funny story to tell me. I will truly miss him. My prayers are with his family at this time.

Kathaleen Soter - November 22, 2013 at 09:51 PM

“ When I was a little girl, I loved spending the night with my cousins Toni & Ann, and Aunt Jenny and Uncle Floyd. Uncle Floyd always made me feel special and I would fall asleep comforted by his whistling. He made my childhood special!

“ Even though I lived 400 miles away, I have many fond memories of my Uncles in Zanesville, especially Uncle Floyd. He was always such a happy, easy going person. He was quite a tease, too, but then again so were most of the Denton brothers. I loved his stories about his police department days and remember when he chased a robbery suspect across the "Y" bridge. The robber must not have been from Zanesville and missed the y went thru the railing and landed in the river. Uncle Floyd came out to visit in Illinois and usually brought my Grandpa Denton with. They loved the horse racing at Arlington PK. His wife, Jenny and my mother picked a horse to bet on, Pete's Penny, (because either Ann or Toni's nickname was Pete) and my grandpa D didn't want to place the bet because it was a long shot...Dad and Floyd told Grandpa D that he'd better cuz they didn't have the money to cover the bet if the horse won. HE did place the bet and Pete's Penny WON! My prayers and thoughts go out to the family...I know he will be missed, but now he is home with his dear wife and Heavenly Father.

“ Mr D spent many afternoons at the Mall and visited me at Wendys often. One day we were talking and as always he and the guys were "girl watching" and as I was about to head back to work he stated the most beautiful woman still held his heart and was in his wallet. He showed me a picture of his wife and had such love on his face and shining in his eyes. That same look came across his face when he talked of his daughters and grandchildren....he loved with all his heart. A wonderul man who I will miss but am very blessed to have gotten the chance to know.
