“ Ann, John and Fred - So sorry for the loss of your mother. Just seems like yesterday, all the fond memories of our two families together and enjoying each others company. I can tell you that my mother and father certainly considered your mom and dad - best of friends. Fran was always one of my favorites and got me one of my first jobs. She was such a thoughtful and wonderful women. God bless.Ed Bebout Jr. and family

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She was one of the sweetest loving people i have ever met. I will forever cherish all the rides to basketball games, spending nights at your house, and most importantly that loving smile that instantly made me feel welcomed. She was a special lady that was an amazing mother. I could always tell, even at young age how much chersished all three of you- you were her life and her world. May God bless you during this time and give you the strength to always carry on her legacy in that you do in her life. Todd Whiteman
