“ Uncle Fred was always a jolly person. I remember him well when I was about 8 years old which was 52 years ago. He would come to our home in Kennett Square, PA and stay with us, my mom Katharine was his sister (died on Feb. 7, 2012) He would always make us laugh and tease us. I remember him throwing pennies in snow and want us kids to go and get the pennies, he got such a laugh out of that! I just found out today that he passed. The ironic thing about his death is that my sister, Sheila Ann also died on that same day, May 13, 2013 at 09:30 in the morning. She had cancer and her death was premature. I know though that she is up there celebrating with Uncle Fred, our Mom, Katharine, Russ (our dad), Rusty, (our brother) and her son, Michael who pre-deceased her. RIP Uncle Fred and may your family be blessed. Love, Your Niece, Debbie Kay.
