“ You always had a warm smile, a joke of the day, or a way to make it seem like everything would be ok. There are so many memories from when Brian and I were dating, our wedding, and one of my favorites when you sat at the kitchen table timing my contractions with us for Jackie's arrival into this world. There are so many happy memories to choose from.. you will be missed greatly. All the happiness and joy to the lives you have touched, co-workers, friends, and family. I'll never forget you Dad.

You will be watching over us with Grandma Barker and those that have passed before you, and when we laugh at ourselves over the silly things, I'm sure you will be laughing with us.. saying What did you do that for? lol.. So I will hold you close in my heart untill we meet again. Love you, Connie Barker
