“ Jason was an all around great guy and will dearly be missed. If I had an auto or small engine issue I knew I could get the how to fix answer from Jason or he'd sometimes say just bring out to my house and we'll get it figured out. At work if I was having a bad time I'd walk over to his work station and hear the 80's rock jammin and that'd turn my mood around pretty quick and I'd have to add some of the songs to my playlist cause I'd forgotten about some of them. Thoughts and prayers to the family ❤️. Fly high buddy.
