“ So very sad to hear of your loss. Your mother was such a perfect example of love not only as a mother but as a beautiful woman of faith. Her smile was always inviting and her home welcomed so many of us. I must say I loved the warmth of your home and your family and oh my....., your mother's cooking was fabulous!! May God bless all of you with comfort and treasured memories during this difficult time. Wish I could be there to share in this time. With hugs, prayers and blessings!!! Terri Johnson

“ Dear Mary Ann,

My sympathy for your mother's passing. I read with interest in how she was a seamstress for the Nader's Store and held many other career positions. I am sure she knew my mom. She was very active and has left a nice legacy for all of you to remember her.

Best wishes and hope to see you at our next class reunion!

“ To all of you--seems I know everyone of you in some form or another---Remember your mom touched so many lives and her love of life, family and church showed in her smile her eyes and actions. She always smiled at me and spoke to me even though I am sure she always forgot my name but not my face. I have always admired your mother from afar as a woman of great strength and faith. Know I will miss seeing her smile as she walks around St. Thomas playground during festivals smiling proudly as one of her children are there with her working. Touch your heart and hang onto your memories. God has another Angel. You are all in my thoughts and prayers!
