“ My deep condolences to the Dollings family. Jeremy will be greatly missed. So many memories of playing cards the Dolling's basement, staying up late debating (arguing) with Jeremy about politics. He was passionate about his beliefs and those he loved. I will remember him picking on Adam for eating those cheese sandwiches curled up on the couch. Much love and sympathy to Jeff, Beth, all the siblings and friends who knew and loved Jeremy. ”

“ Jeremy was a great neighbor to my wife and I. Always stopped to talk to him when he was out walking Rascal and Marty. Throw the ball to Rascal if he had it out with him. Talking about our fantasy football stuff, football in general and the Cowboys since we were both Cowboys fans. Always looked out for each others things. Overall just a great guy and couldn't ask for a better neighbor.

To look back and realize at just 17 yrs old starting this job he helped in my navigation of working life ALOT! He was so smart and the precision of his fantasy teams and plays was. Downright amazing at times!
10 yrs with you! 10 yrs of knowledge, 10 yrs of snow day fun in the parking lot at work! We're going to miss you man!
