Johnny Miller was my first cousin but more like the 'little' brother I didn't have. I am so proud of Johnny, treasure his stellar military service. I loved Johnny as a child and regret being so far from this wonderful grown man and his family.

May God bless and comfort you, Brenda and your children.

“ Brother Johnny was a wonderful encouragement. Even when he was not feeling well, he still had that infectious smile on his face. He always had a testimony on his heart and a song on his lips. He had an amazing voice and was a blessing to everyone who knew him. Brother Miller will be missed greatly! We will be praying for the family during this time.
