“ I am so thankful that I got the chance to meet and get to know Art and Julia. They were priceless. . .full of humor, wisdom and love. I didn't know much of the Shumate family growing up and they both went out of their way to look at photos and tell stories and share some of that love with me. I remember the first time we met. . .my son was just walking so it was about 1999 and they loved my son and babied him.

My cousins, keep sharing that love. . .keep their memories alive. . .talk about them, share their stories. . .remember all the good times. . .keep them close to your hearts and they will never really be gone.

With deepest sympathies, Tricia Shumate Lewis, Ralph Middaugh and Spencer Lewis

“ I will always remember Aunt JuJu. I could never say Julis when I was little, so she told me to call her Aunt JuJu. I always loved visiting her and Uncle Artie's house. Everytime I would stop to visit, she was always cooking. Of course she made me sit down and eat. She was a great cook. Now she will be cooking again in heaven. Aunt JuJu you have alot to feed there. I will miss you. RIP Aunt JuJu Shumate. Love you always your niece Jenny Thompson, son Matthew Thompson Harris, Beau Harris and your sister-in-law Margaret "Peg" Shumate Thompson Mellen
