“ To the Grote and Pitcock families. I remember well when Karen came into our lives and the love and affection shown her by Uncle Tom and Aunt Dorothy and her three sisters. I often revisit our trips to Zanesville to see the Stephens family in my mind and crossing the 'Y' bridge and seeing the railroad tracks behind the family home. So sad to lose another cousin, but I am positive that God has welcomed her home and she is at peace in his glory. May he comfort you in your loss. Sincere condolences from John and Saundy Nadalin.
