“ So Sorry for the family's loss. Worked with Kenny for years at Longaberger, we was such a sweet and caring man. I always told him that if I could pick a grandpa I'd pick him. Lots of prayers to the family during this tough time.

“ Barb, We are praying for you and the family. Della and Marlene kept us updated. When we heard hospice had been called in I prayed if it was time, God would take him home peacefully and give you the strength you need. Know we will be with you in spirit even if the weather keeps us from traveling to Zanesville. We have been praying regularly for both of you. You have been a wonderful couple. Our memory of Kenny is how he would smile when you talked to him even when he could no longer talk. The picture here is exactly the way we will remember him. .God Bless and strengthen you, Sherry and Bob.
