“ We offer our condolence to the family of Leona Hohman. She was a very courageous and faithful wife and mother. Her love for family was absolutely unconditional. We have many fond memories of our visits with her. The most recent being in the fall of 2013. As was her habit we had a delicious assortment of cookies and drinks. One memory in particular stands out. On August 17th, 1977 we visited her, Andy and Rita on the farm. Both Marisa and Steve recall that day. Of course we all enjoyed the mid-day meal which included delicious pies and cookies.

She will be missed by all who knew her. With Love.

“ *I send condolences to each of you seven children and to your two generations that follow. Leona was a marvelous person that experienced the unfortunate loss of her husband, Bernard, at a young age of 58. For 40 years without a husband, Leona continued to raise a loving family all the while doing God's will. May God bless Leona as she has truly earned eternal happiness as promised in Heaven.
