“ I am very sorry for your loss. I did not know Lewis but when I saw the name the of his late son, Peter, my mind went back to the early '70's when I was a child and, for a short period of time, I was friends with a boy named Peter George. At that time I believe, his family lived in a yellow brick apartment complex next to the fairgrounds on Pershing Ave. He had younger siblings and his mother allowed me to stay for dinner one evening. We had chili. Everyone was very nice. I always thought Peter was a little older than me. He was a very adventurous and curious young man and I always wondered what became of him. Could this be the same young man? I am 57 now and I'm not sure the ages would be right but there were very young families back then too. Please forgive me if I am intruding on you grief. Thank you.
