

Lois Boetcher

August 5, 1959 - February 1, 2012

Lois A. Boetcher, 52 of Zanesville, died 6:36 AM Wednesday, February 1, 2012 at Genesis Morrison House Hospice following a lengthy battle with cancer. She was born Wednesday, August 5, 1959 in Grayson, KY the daughter of James M. Blevins and Doris S.(King) Blevins. She married James A. "Andy" Boetcher on Thursday, July 4, 1991.

Lois retired following many years of service with United Technologies where she made many life long friends: Tina Jones, Sandy Kinney, Terry (Buzz) Bollinger, Kelly McLean and many more. She was an avid gardener and enjoyed growing both flowers and vegetables. Lois loved crafts and greatly enjoyed making blankets that she would give to her nieces, nephews and grandchildren. Lois was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, aunt and sister. She will be sadly missed but happily remembered by all who knew her..

Lois is survived by her husband of the home; one son Micheal (Kyla) Smitley of Mt. Perry; three stepsons: Joshua Boetcher of Reynoldsburg, Jason Mayle and Brandon Claypool both of Zanesville; one grandson: Aidan; one step grandson: Keyon; two sisters: Rachel (David) Johnson of Florida and Georgetta (Robin) Walker; one brother: Mic Blevins of Norwich; many nieces, nephews and great nieces and great nephews.

In addition to her parents, Lois was preceded in death by one brother: Steven Allen Blevins and maternal and paternal grandparents.

In accordance with Lois' wishes a caring cremation will take place. A “ Lois was one of a kind. I got to work with her and got to know her the last few years before Essex shut down. Lois loved her family, and if you were her friend she was a true friend. I will remember her laugh and smile, and how she use to tess my big brother Steven Morgan. I'm sure he will be in line to welcome her to Heaven. Thanks for the memories Lois.
