“ Mom, I loved you every day of my life. I feel very sad that Debbie didn't let me know that you died and I had to find out about 6 months later on the computer. My wife, Lynda, and I are very happy and she was there by me the last time I talked to you when I was in the hospital. I miss you every day and I wish Debbie didn't interfere with our relationship and wouldn't let me see dad before he died. I will always love you mom!!!! Forever, Vance

“ As a young girl I always looked up to my beautiful, youngest Aunt Mimi. Coming from a big flat city I looked at McKeesport filled with family and trees and hills as an ideal place.

Aunt Mimi, her handsome husband, Uncle Ron and their young family and home in (little) Boston, PA were an example of a life I hoped for. They continued to be a fine example to follow for the rest of their lives.
