“ To all of Mary's family, but particularly her children, Kathy, Tim and Mary Beth, I send condolences and my deepest sympathy on your loss. Having spent a good deal of my childhood in the company of your family and watching our parents enjoy their friendship through the years, both in Zanesville and Steubenville, I feel blessed to have had those years together with you all. I have many memories of romping about in your basement while our parents played bridge upstairs in the living room (my, oh, my...how they LOVED their bridge games!), along with playing in your backyard during cook-outs, sleep-overs, etc. Your home was always welcoming and fun, thanks in great part to your wonderful mom. I am so grateful that my mother, Helen Mae, and I stopped by to see Mary at Primrose just a few years ago during our last visit to Zanesville, and we enjoyed a wonderful afternoon catching up on families and old times. Today, my mother at 95, resides in the Memory Care section of a local Retirement Home, but I know that she still remembers her old friend, Mary, and will be sad to learn of her passing. I know that I am. Peace, strength and love to you all. - Sue Stephenson

“Mary was my mother's friend, and a great second mom to all of us in the neighborhood. We all spent fun times at the Hudaks' house, talking, listening to our favorite music, playing games, sled riding, and having parties in the "rec room"! Mary helped me learn to sew, especially when she would say "rip it out", and I had many delicious meals at her kitchen and dining room tables, celebrating birthdays and just being together.

love to all her family,

“Sweet Miss Mary. . . so sorry to hear of her passing but was so very blessed to have had her a part of my life. She was a beautiful, smart and generous volunteer with Good Sam for years. She knew my dad and worked with many of my family members. She will be greatly missed. To her family, may you continue her loving ways and do so in honor of your mom and grandma. . . you will pass the blessings on. . . .

“Congratulations on a long and fulfilled life, Mary. Your daughter, Katie, is one of the best daughters any mother could want and I know you loved her as much as she loved you. Say "Hi!" to the Gauche, Gerwe, and Howard clans, for us, when you run into them in heaven. You will be sorely missed by all those whom you have touched in your lifetime.
