“ My cousin Mike was a role model and hero to me when I was growing up. Though seven years my senior, he always would be generous with his time when I visited Zanesville with my mother during several summers. He introduced me to roller skating at Lind Arena, mopeds (Roger's), shooting, model making and volleyball at Aunt Jen's. He was the kindest, most patient person I ever knew and will be forever in my heart. Good bye gentle Mike...hope to see you again someday. John Chism
