“ Michael, every day since Saturday I've cried until I can't breathe. This can't be real. Sadly it's a bad dream that we can't wake up from with so many questions. I will have memories of you from as young as elementary school until just recently. You've always been a comfort and a touchstone in my life. I thank you for being part of the driving force that got me through some of the darkest days while I battled cervical cancer. Rest easy. All my love to your children as well as your dad, Grandma Ruth Ann and Mindy & family.

“ Ruth Ann, Steve, Dee and Families: So so sorry for your loss. Can't imagine what you all are going through. I remember Michael coming to my house to rescue the huge beautiful peacock that had taken up residence on my back porch/patio. He was so gentle with it. Due to current health issues on my part, will not be able to come to visitation; but my thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this trying time. Remember, death leaves a memory no one can heal - love leaves a memory no one can steal. Janet Finley and Family.
