“ My memories of Aunt Nancy are that she was always smiling and often laughing heartily. She loved ice cream and thought the only flavor was chocolate. She just loved children. She had an amazing amount of energy, usually deployed on behalf of her family. I will miss her.

“ Sincere condolences on the death of Nancy. I live in Florida most of the time now but on a trip home this spring I ran into Nancy shopping at Walmart and had a nice chat. She will always be remembered for the humor and laughter that she brought to my beauty salon each week for years, and her pride in her family. May she rest in peace. God comfort all of you.
