“ She was the best at talks, she had wonderful stories full of lessons and she was such a great listener. Her heart was so big that she'd help anyone, she would go out of her way just to make sure someone was okay. She always did stuff with us grandkids, my dearest memories are spending my summers at her house where there was never a dull moment, we'd dance, laugh, run around, play games, swim and go to too many fun places. I love her so much. I'll forever cherish the love she gave to me❤️

“ Oh she knew how to get the crowd going let me tell you and she'd always look out for every kid she came across. I remember mother's day at school one year parents didn't show and my gram was making crafts with 3 other kids and I. She had the best heart. She was stern but she taught good lessons and made sure you knew you were always loved. I'll miss you ❤️
