

Norman L. Hasselberger

August 20, 1967 - July 1, 2016

Norman L. Hasselberger, 48 of Zanesville died peacefully at his home 9:30 PM, Friday, July 1, 2016, follow a courageous battle with cancer. He was born August 31, 1967 in Fort Bragg, N.C. the son of Robert "Bob" & Linda (Adams) Hasselberger. He married the love of this life, Tammy J. (Hines) Hasselberger on May 20th 2009.

Norman proudly served his country as a veteran of the United States Army. He greatly enjoyed riding his Harley Davidson Motorcycle and was a member of H.O.G. (Harley Owners Group). Norman was a huge Ohio State Buckeye Fan who tailgated regularly at the games. Norman greatly enjoyed the time he spent with his family, especially his grandchildren. He was a "great" grandfather to all of his grandchildren.

Norman is survived by his parents: Bob & Linda Hasselberger of Zanesville; wife of the home: Tammy Hasselberger; one son: Pavin Hasselberger of Saraland, AL; stepchildren: Brittany Hiles, Joshua (Wesley Jenkins) Valentine and Johnny Lloyd all of Zanesville, Jennifer Lloyd of Cleveland and Amber (Shawn) Rhinebolt of Zanesville; several grandchildren; one brother: Marty (Pam) Hasselberger; one sister: Vicki (Tony Mills) Baker both of Zanesville; a nephew, nieces, many friends, his best friend: Mark (Candy) Mauller; his mother & father-in-law: Larry & Sandy Hines both of Zanesville; a brother-in-law: Terry Hines of Columbus and his beloved and devoted pets: Chan & Daisy.

Per Norman's wishes no services will be held and cremation has been chosen. Memorial contributions may be made to the Wounded Warrior Project, PO Box 758517, Topeka, KS, 66675 or www.woundedwarriorproject.org in Norman's memory. In Norman's words "Give to those who need it more than I do." To sign the online guestbook or leave a personal note of condolence please visit www.hilliscombsnestor.com. The Hillis, Combs & Nestor Funeral Home is honored to care for the Hasselberger Family.

“ Norman was a well known guy... He was so generous and giving person..I still can't believe you are gone... I think of you often.. He came down and put up a garage door opener for Steve... I don't think there are many that Norman didn't touch their lives in some way or another...

Rest in Peace...

Love and Miss you always...
