“ Aunt Marcy and family we were all sad to hear of Uncle Paul's passing. I have fond memories of the week I spent with you all when I was 10 years old. It's hard to believe that we have lost Jim Hermann and now your father. I'm sure they are together laughing and telling stories. My love and prayers to you all.

“ I am glad and thankful that I was blessed with the opportunity to spend part of a day and evening with my Uncle Paul quite a few years ago now. His kindness was obvious and his love for his family was too. We will pray for good memories of him and give thanks for the good things he shared with all of us in my weekly Native American sweat lodge ceremony later today Saturday 1/10/15. My blessings of love go out to all of you and encourages your positive good views and actions. Respectfully, Michael Leroy Hermann

“ Paul was always a very pleasant man and an asset to the business community of Cambridge.. I enjoyed talking with him, selling him radio and TV advertising ... or ... buying a piece of fine jewelry from him. Treasure the memories!

“ As you all gather together, and tears run down your face. Just keep your eyes on Jesus and the goodness of his grace. You have lost someone you love and I know it causes pain. But If you were in heaven now, God is calling Paul by name. He says he's glad to see him, that it's been a long, long time. Then he wraps his arms around him and he tells him all is fine. God shows him all his mansions, with the rolling hills and plains and reminds him up in heaven he won't suffer any pain. So as you sit in silence, please bow your heads in prayer, praising God for all his blessings and thinking him for being there. May God always walk beside you 'Til your time on earth is through. In God's time you'll go to heaven and will see your loved one too. Brenda Watson

“ Paul, Susan, Diane, Beth and Mark, because of your dad, I am who I am and very proud of growing up in your house! Not sure what heaven is going to do with another boss, but I am sure he will look down on us and smile! God bless each of you and your families!
