“ My Dearest Hermen Sibs, Spouses, nieces, nephews and family, We are so very sorry about the passing of your dear brother Bob. He was a great guy and I have many fond memories of Bob growing up and spending time at the Hermen house all those years. May you all cherish and hold close in your heart all of your loving memories of him and gain some comfort knowing he is reunited with your loving mom and dad. We love you all and you are in our thoughts and prayers during this time of sadness and sorrow. God Bless you all. With deepest sympathy, Love and Hugs, Elizabeth and Olivia. R.I.P. Bob! XOXO

“ Dearest Hermens: My sisters, cousins and I are all so greatly saddened by the news of your loss. Bob was so cute - on the inside and out! I remember his flirtatious teasing during our visits to Zanesville. He had me believing that he liked me best even amidst the crowd (your 10 kids plus our 9 (extended group) plus the adults). Of course, during the rides home, I'd discover that each of us girls believed the same thing. He was charming ... and handsome ... and heart melting. I've missed him ... and all of you ... for a long time now. I'm so sorry. In sympathy, with love, Chrissy (and Barb, too), from Steeler Country

“ Your family is in my very special prayers. From Eppley Avenue to the Pine and Greenwood bus, to Bishop Rosecrans, to, yeah, ok, the ball diamond and OUZ, the pages of my life are filled with memories of giggles, jokes, classes, sports, double dates, T P-ing, empathy, lessons learned and friendship with your brother. In his quite way he was smart, hilarious, and a just plain genuine person. His presence will be missed! God bless Bob and your family. Love, Neen, (Mary Maxwell)

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all of the Hermen family. I remember Bob from the basketball games at Rosecrans. To get the crowd riled up, Bob would carry Steve Rinehart (my husband) on his shoulders around the floor. They were part of the game! Steve is gone now also. Maybe they will meet in heaven and team up again! Keep your memories close to your heart and Bob will always be with you!
