“ Words can't express how Robin has touched the lives of many countless people. He certainly touched mine in ways I could never repay him for. I am a better man for it. If I could touch the lives of half as many as he has I'd be happy. He left us way too soon but God decided his work was done here on earth and he earned his crown and mansion in the sky. He'll be walking the golden pathways along the crystal waters with no pain and never growing old. Rest in peace my special friend!, Burt
