“ You were strong as you have always been. You fought long and hard now you can rest. The tears I form for you are tears of joy for you will have no more pain. Please hug my mother for me and tell my brother and freedom I carry them in my heart everyday. I promise I will lend a ear to your family when they need to talk and I will rap my arms around them until they are ready to let go. Love always Chell and family!
