“ Sharan was a dear friend of mine. We hired on at Walmart about the same time and worked together for quite awhile. In fact we car-pooled for some time. I knew she had past medical problems, but I didn't expect this, as I'm sure you didn't. I am so deeply sorry for your loss as I know you will miss her. Her family meant the world to her, that I know from knowing her. I loved her for the friends we were and I know I'll miss her terribly. My heart goes out to you, Della

“ I met Sharan only a few months ago when she left work and made sure my daughter went to the hospital (after an episode at work of what we thought was heart related). Sharan was deeply concerned for my daughter's health and could have easily went home and relaxed. But she didn't. She sat with us for hours in the hospital. Within a few minutes after meeting her, Sharan felt like a sister to me. I knew in my heart she was something special. God has truly gained an angel. R.I.P. my dear friend, Sharan. You will surely be missed here on earth.
