“ My parents had the highest regard for Shirley. They were both born in Clarksburg, West Virginia so they had a connection with Shirley & Clayce. My Mother loved to visit & chat with Shirley. My parents have been deceased for a few years now but I remember them telling me about Shirley. You have my sympathy & prayers for comfort & peace!

“ Taking care of Shirley was my pleasure she was sweet n kind loving to the end. I would bring her a banana split blizzard from the Dairy Queen every time I was scheduled to stay overnight n we would eat them n laugh n talk about her life. She also dance to old country music with me. Rest In Peace my friend XOXO❤️
