“ Paul Jr, Gloria, and Marilyn,
I am very sorry to hear of Shirley's passing. She had such a joyful spirit! I remember when you all came to our home and when we visited yours and how much fun it was to share meals and play games. Thanks for the memories and may God Bless You and comfort you as Shirley finds a new home with Jesus!

To Shirley's family,
We are so sorry for the loss of Shirley. Our prayers and thoughts are with the entire family. Shirley was a very special, loving person, she loved and liked everyone, and everyone enjoyed her. Going to miss her hugs and kisses she gave everyone on Friday nights. She would say it was for "good luck", while playing bingo. She was the biggest "Elvis" fan that we knew. Kurt & Marylou
