“ I have fond memories of Uncle Ted as a child. He was always very kind and I don't recall him ever saying an unkind word. I remember he loved to fishing with his zebco 33 during the summer and hunt in the fall. To the family, and Stacy, I am so sorry for the loss.

“ Uncle Ted you got Eric and I are first fishing poles. The Zebco 33. We loved fishing with you and aunt Nancy. You would come over to the basketball court where Eric and I played and you would play horse with us and sometimes we got horseshoes out and threwed them. You and your one handed set shot you perfected. You was accurate. Thank you for helping raise me to be the man I am today. I will miss eating breakfast at the Eagles and sharing our talks. You will be missed. Love you Uncle Ted.

“ Daddy, you taught me countless things. How to fix lawn mowers, how to ride a bike, fix brakes in my car. You took me out every evening when I was little so I could watch the trucks on the interstate roll by with their "deedle smoke" engines. I wanted to go fish with you one last time, we will again one day. I miss you and I love you. -Stacy
